ORDER OF CANADA
GOVERNMENT HOUSE
OTTAWA

Dear Sir,

The Rt. Hon. Lester B. Pearson, Prime Minister of Canada, announced in the House of Commons on April 17 a new, distinctly Canadian system of honours and awards to be known as the Order of Canada. Since that time the Chancellor of the Order, His Excellency the Rt. Hon. Roland Michener, has established at Government House a Secretariat for the Order that will receive confidential nominations for appointments.

According to the Constitution of the Order any organization or individual may submit to the Secretary General of the Order, for consideration by the Advisory Council, a nomination of a Canadian citizen for appointment to the Order.

As you may know, the Constitution also provides for the Governor General to appoint, during 1967, up to fifty Companions of the Order and to award as many as one hundred Medals of Service. The appointments made will include only those nominees who have given distinguished service of the very highest order to Canada or to humanity at large.

The Secretariat is now beginning to prepare a list of nominations for the consideration of the Advisory Council. To ensure the greatest possible public knowledge of the Order, the Secretariat is circulating to some hundreds of national and provincial organizations the enclosed pamphlet describing the Order in more detail. It is hoped that in this way a comprehensive and representative list of nominations, including the names of distinguished Canadians from every field of endeavour in Canadian life, can be placed before the Advisory Council for its consideration.

If there is some outstanding Canadian whose name you feel should be considered by the Advisory Council, I should be grateful if you would submit a confidential nomination to the Secretary General of the Order, Government House, Ottawa.

Yours sincerely,

Esmond Butler,
Secretary General of the Order of Canada.

ORDRE DU CANADA
RÉSIDENCE DU GOUVERNEUR GÉNÉRAL
OTTAWA

Cher Monsieur,

Le très honorable Lester B. Pearson, Premier ministre du Canada, a annoncé à la Chambre des Communes le 17 avril l'établissement d'un nouveau régime bien canadien de décorations et de récompenses qui sera dénommé Ordre du Canada. Depuis cette date, le Chancelier de l'Ordre, Son Excellence le très honorable Roland Michener, a établi à la Résidence du Gouverneur général un secrétariat pour l'Ordre qui recevra les mises en candidature à titre confidentiel en vue de nominations.

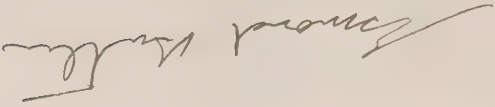

D'après la constitution de l'Ordre, toute personne ou organisation peut soumettre au secrétaire général de l'Ordre pour examen par le Conseil consultatif la mise en candidature d'un citoyen canadien en vue de sa nomination à l'Ordre.

Comme vous le savez sans doute, la constitution stipule également que le Gouverneur général peut nommer, au cours de 1967, jusqu'à cinquante Compagnons de l'Ordre et décerner jusqu'à cent Médailles pour services éminents. Les nominations faites comprendront seulement les personnes mises en candidature qui ont rendu des services distingués de la plus haute valeur au Canada ou à l'humanité en général.

Le secrétariat commence actuellement à préparer une liste des personnes mises en candidature pour examen par le Conseil consultatif. Afin que le public soit renseigné le plus possible au sujet de l'Ordre, le secrétariat distribue à quelques centaines de divers organismes nationaux et provinciaux la brochure ci-jointe décrivant l'Ordre de façon plus détaillée. On espère que de cette façon une liste appréciable et représentative de personnes mises en candidature, comprenant les noms de Canadiens éminents dans tous les domaines d'activité de la vie canadienne, pourra être présentée pour examen au Conseil consultatif.

Si vous croyez que le nom d'un Canadien éminent devrait être pris en considération par le Conseil consultatif, nous vous prions de bien vouloir soumettre cette mise en candidature à titre confidentiel au secrétaire général de l'Ordre à la Résidence du Gouverneur général, à Ottawa.

Veuillez agréer, cher Monsieur, l'expression de ma meilleure considération.

Esmond Butler,
Secrétaire général de l'Ordre du Canada.
